

George S. Boolos Memorial Symposium

A symposium on logic and philosophy of mathematics to commemorate the life and work of George Boolos will be held April 15–18, 1998 at the University of Notre Dame. There will be an informal get-together from 8:00 until 11:00 on the evening of April 15th at the Inn at St. Mary's (on the campus of St. Mary's College, just across US 31 from the Notre Dame campus). Sessions will begin the morning of April 16th at the Center for Continuing Education on the Notre Dame campus. Following a tribute by Charles Parsons, the symposium will open with a lecture by Solomon Feferman. The other symposium speakers are:

John Burgess
Michael Detlefsen
Warren Goldfarb
Richard Heck
Darryl Jung
Penelope Maddy
Vann McGee
Charles Parsons
Stewart Shapiro
Wilfried Sieg
William Tait
Albert Visser
Mark Wilson
Crispin Wright

A schedule of sessions will be posted on the Notre Dame Philosophy Department website (<http://www.nd.edu:80/ndphil/>) as soon as it becomes available. For further information please contact the conference director, Michael Detlefsen, by email at detlefsen.1@nd.edu or by phone at (219) 631-7534. For information concerning accommodations and travel, please contact the conference manager, Ms. Harriet Baldwin, at Harriet.E.Baldwin.1@nd.edu or (219) 631-7864 or by fax (219) 631-8083.

The conference is open to the public and interested students and faculty are cordially invited to attend. All sessions will be held in the Center for Continuing Education on the Notre Dame campus.
