

bers of the Council, and until their successors shall be elected. For election as President shall be eligible those members of the Society who have served in the office of Vice-President and who are not holding office as President or Vice-President; and for election as Vice-President shall be eligible those members of the Society not holding office as President or Vice-President. No elected member of the Council, having completed a term of three years, shall be reelected until at least one year shall have intervened.

3. If the President of the Society die or resign before the expiration of his term of office the Council may designate one of the Vice-Presidents to serve as Acting President until the next Annual Meeting, when a President shall be elected by the Society. Such vacancies as may exist at any time among the other offices may be filled by the Council. If any elected member of the Council die or resign more than one year before the expiration of his term, the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by the Society at the next Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

This Constitution shall not be amended unless notice of the proposed amendment be sent by mail to every member of the Society at least four weeks in advance of the meeting at which such amendment is to be considered; and such amendment in order to be adopted must receive two-thirds of the votes cast in person and by mail.

BY-LAWS.

I.

The election of new members of the Society shall be by vote of the Council. Application for admission shall be made by the applicant personally, on blanks provided by the Secretary, and shall be endorsed by two members of the Society. Such applications, being received at any meeting of the Council, shall be laid over for action at any subsequent meeting.

II.

1. Persons elected by the Council, as provided in By-Law I, shall be admitted to membership in the Society upon the payment, within sixty days of the date of their election, of an initiation fee of five dollars.

2. The annual dues shall be five dollars, payable on the first of January. Each new member shall pay in proportion to the unexpired fraction of the year at the time of his election. Should the annual
