

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUMMER MEETING OF THE AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY.

At the invitation of Adelbert College and the Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, Ohio, the twenty-fourth summer meeting of the Society was held at these institutions on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, September 4-6, 1917. This was the Society's second visit to Cleveland, the annual meeting having been held there in the winter of 1912-1913. On the present occasion the interest was reinforced by the meeting of the Mathematical Association of America, immediately following on September 6-7. The arrangements, which were in charge of a committee representing both organizations, included a joint session on Thursday morning, at which Professor L. P. Eisenhart presented an address on "Darboux's Contribution to Geometry," and a joint dinner on Wednesday evening, attended by seventy-six members and friends, to whom President Thwing, of Western Reserve University, spoke a word of greeting, which was followed by a number of informal responses to the calls of the toast-master, Professor Huntington. The programme on Wednesday afternoon included an inspection of the harmonic analysis apparatus of Professor Miller, of the Case School, and an organ recital in the chapel. On Thursday afternoon President Thwing gave a garden party in honor of the visiting societies. Luncheon was served on each day at the Case Club, whose building was thrown open to the members afternoons and evenings. At the close of the meeting a vote of thanks was tendered to the authorities of the two colleges for their generous hospitality.

The meeting included the usual morning and afternoon sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday and the joint session on Thursday morning. The following sixty-four members were in attendance:

Professor O. P. Akers, Dr. Florence E. Allen, Professor R. B. Allen, Professor L. D. Ames, Professor Frederick Anderegg, Professor R. C. Archibald, Professor G. N. Armstrong, Professor Grace M. Bareis, Professor J. W. Bradshaw, Dr. R. W. Burgess, Professor W. D. Cairns, Professor Florian Cajori, Professor W. M. Carruth, Professor W. B. Carver, Mr. E. H.
