RESEARCH JOURNALS

Submission information for these journals is included in the April and October issues of this BULLETIN.

Bulletin (New Series) of the American Mathematical Society is a quarterly journal which contains Research-Expository Papers, Research Announcements, and Reviews of Books on Advanced Mathematics.

Mathematics of Computation is a quarterly journal devoted to original papers in numerical analysis, the application of numerical methods and high-speed calculator devices, the computation of mathematical tables, the theory of high-speed calculating devices, and other aids to computation.

Memoirs of the American Mathematical Society is a bimonthly journal constituting a series of paperbound research tracts which are of the same general character as the papers published in the TRANSACTIONS.

Proceedings of the American Mathematical Society is a monthly journal devoted entirely to research in pure and applied mathematics, principally to the publication of original papers of moderate length. A department called Shorter Notes was established for the purpose of publishing very short papers of an unusually elegant and polished character for which there is normally no other outlet.

Transactions of the American Mathematical Society is a monthly journal devoted entirely to research in pure and applied mathematics and, in general, includes longer papers than those in the PROCEEDINGS.

OTHER JOURNALS

Abstracts of Papers Presented to the American Mathematical Society contains abstracts of invited hour addresses, of papers presented in special sessions or in sessions for contributed papers, and of papers presented to the Society “by title”.

Current Mathematical Publications, issued triweekly, contains a subject-classified index of papers and books being published currently in mathematics.

Mathematical Reviews is a monthly journal devoted to abstracts and reviews of the current mathematical literature of the world. Abstracts and reviews are grouped according to the 1980 Mathematics Subject Classification scheme (1985 Revision). The subscription includes an annual author and subject index.

Notices of the American Mathematical Society, published eight times a year, contains programs and reports of the meetings of the Society, reports on Society business, communications to the membership, and news items and information of interest to the mathematical community.
