Hardly a branch of mathematics has a history longer than that of combinatorics, and similarly, no branch of knowledge has as comprehensive an application to modern science. Research results in combinatorics are applied in a range of fields including computer science, artificial intelligence, communication networks, and space technology.

Graphs and Combinatorics is an international journal devoted to research concerning all aspects of combinatorial mathematics. In addition to original research papers and survey articles, the journal also features short communications, research problems, and announcements. As particular attention is paid to rapid publication, researchers will come to rely on Graphs and Combinatorics not only to keep themselves informed of current developments, but will also use it as a forum for publishing their own work.

A selection of articles from recent issues:

F. Harary, J. Lauri: The Class Reconstruction Number of Maximal Planar Graphs.

Z. Tuza: Inequalities for Two Set Systems with Prescribed Intersections.

M. Yoshizawa: On Schematic Orthogonal Arrays OA (q', k, q, t). P. Frankl, Z. Füredi, J. Pach: Bounding One-Way Differences.

J. M. S. Simões-Pereira: Underlying Graph and Total Length of Opimal Realizations of Variable Distance Matrices.

J. S. Beissinger, U. N. Peled: Enumeration of Labelled Threshold Graphs and a Theorem of Frobenius Involving Eulerian Polynomials.

P. Fraisse, C. Thomassen: Hamiltonian Dicycles Avoiding Prescribed Arcs in Tournaments.

V. Chvátal, N. Sbihi: Bull-Free Berge Graphs Are Perfect.

D. Jungnickel: On a Theorem of Ganley.

M. P. Delest, D. Gouyou-Beauchamps, B. Vauquelin: Enumeration of Parallelogram Polyominoes with Given Bond and Site Perimeter.

A. Gyárfás, J. Lehel, R. H. Schelp, Z. S. Tuza: Ramsey Numbers for Local Colorings.
