

THE NOVEMBER MEETING IN LEXINGTON

The six hundred twenty-seventh meeting of the American Mathematical Society was held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, on Friday and Saturday, November 12-13, 1965. The registration at the meeting was 245, 40 of which were members.

By invitation of the Committee to Select Hour Speakers for the Southeastern Section Meetings, hour addresses were presented by Professor Tatsuo Homma of Florida State University and Professor P. S. Mostert of Tulane University. Professor Homma was introduced by Professor J. C. Cantrell. Professor Mostert was introduced by Professor A. D. Wallace.

There were six sessions for contributed 10-minute papers. The presiding officers at these sessions were R. D. Anderson, R. L. McWilliams, Paul Hill, W. C. Royster, D. R. Brown and C. Greathouse.

There was a special session of 15-minute papers on Semigroups and topological algebra which was chaired by W. Strother.

The Committee on Local Arrangements for the meeting consisted of J. H. Wells (Chairman), F. V. Atkinson, J. D. Buckholtz, J. C. Eaves, T. L. Hayden and W. C. Royster.

O. G. HARROLD,
Associate Secretary

TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA