The aim of Statistical Science is to present the full range of contemporary statistical thought at a technical level accessible to the broad community of practitioners, teachers, researchers, and students of statistics and probability.

The journal will publish discussions of methodological and theoretical topics of current interest and importance, surveys of substantive research areas with promising statistical applications, comprehensive book reviews, discussions of classic articles from the statistical literature, and interviews with distinguished statisticians and probabilists.

SUBMISSION POLICY

Statistical Science welcomes the submission of expository, review, and survey papers in all areas of the theory, methodology, and applications of statistics and probability. Articles that synthesize research that has been published in diverse sources or that has been developed from diverse points of view are especially valuable.

Four nonreturnable copies of any manuscript submitted for consideration are requested for the reviewing process. Copies should be mailed first class to:

Professor Carl N. Morris
Executive Editor, Statistical Sciences
Department of Statistics
Science Center
Harvard University
1 Oxford Street
Cambridge, MA 02138

The manuscripts should be typed on  $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ -inch white paper, on one side only, and double-spaced throughout, including the references, with margins of at least  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inches on all four sides. Pages should be numbered consecutively. The manuscript should contain an abstract of 200 or fewer words, followed by approximately 5 or 6 key words or phrases. A short author's note providing the name, address, present position or rank, and affiliation of each author should also be included.

A condition of submission is that the manuscript has not previously been published and is not simultaneously being considered for publication elsewhere.

Statistical Science is copyrighted and authors will be asked to sign a copyright transfer to the IMS before publication.
